PUMPKIN SPICE MUFFINS

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 can pumpkin
- ¼ cup vegan butter
- ½ cup coconut palm sugar
- 1 flax egg (1 Tbsp ground flax plus 3 Tbsp water)
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 1 tsp baking powder
- ½ tsp pink Himalayan salt
- ½ tsp each cardamom, clove and nutmeg
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1½ cup gluten free flour or oat flour
- ½ cup vegan white chocolate chips

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Preheat oven to 375° F.
- 2) Stir flax and water in a ramekin or small bowl and set aside. You should use a spoon.
- 3) While that's resting, mix sugar and pumpkin. Once that's blended, stir in the melted vegan butter. Add baking soda, baking powder and salt and give it a quick whisk.
- 4) Add spices and flour. Whisk until just blended, a minute or two. It won't look smooth, but you won't see the white color of the flour.
- 5) Add white chips and blend just until mixed.
- 6) Spoon batter into your muffin tin and bake for 20-30 minutes. I start checking with a toothpick in a center muffin after 20 minutes.

The entire bowl of batter makes 12 standard muffins or 24 mini muffins.

ORANGE JUICE PANCAKES

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup orange juice (preferably fresh-squeezed)
- 1 cup oat flour or gluten free flour
- 2 tsp baking powder
- ½ tsp baking soda
- 1 Tbsp coconut palm sugar
- 1 Tbsp water
- 1 Tbsp avocado oil (or coconut oil)
- 1 Tbsp applesauce
- ½ tsp vanilla extract or extra oil or coconut oil or vegan butter for greasing the pan or griddle

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Mix the orange juice, water, sugar, oil, applesauce and vanilla extract well in one bowl.
- 2) Mix the flour, baking powder, and baking soda in a second bowl.
- 4) Slowly add wet to dry and stir well. If you're using the oat flour it will appear very runny at first, so let the bowl sit for about five minutes after mixing so it will thicken.
- 5) Cook on a greased griddle set to medium to medium-low heat, then flip gently when ready. You don't want to cook them too fast and hot, or the middle will be too soft. After I flip them, I like to press down on top with my spatula to evenly spread the batter for the second side. These can puff up a bit when you cook them.
- 6) Serve warm, with a drizzle of all natural, pure maple syrup or local honey.

If you're planning on making any to freeze for the future, I recommend stacking them with layers of parchment between them.

- ½ cup water
- ⅔ cup unsweetened almond milk

- ½ tsp baking soda
- ½ tsp fine sea salt

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Preheat the oven to 350° F.
- 2) Put the cranberries and water in a small saucepan, and bring to a simmer. Remove from heat, cover, and let stand for five minutes. Drain well.
- 3) In a medium bowl, combine almond milk, oil, maple syrup, and cinnamon.
- 4) In a large bowl, whisk flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt until combined. Add the almond milk mixture and cranberries and combine, using as few strokes as possible so you do not over mix the dough.
- 5) Turn the dough out onto a lightly floured work surface. Shape into a ball and pat out with your fingers to a thickness of ½ inch. Use a lightly floured 2-inch round cookie cutter to cut out the scones. Gather up scraps, pat out again and cut out more scones. You should have 15 total.
- 6) Transfer the scones to an un-greased baking sheet. Bake until lightly browned, 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot.

SOFT GLUTEN-FREE SANDWICH BREAD

INGREDIENTS:

Yeast mix:

1½ cup water or almond milk

4 Tbsp honey

2½ tsp dry active yeast (Be sure your yeast is fresh and alive.)

Dry mix:

3 cups all-purpose gluten-free flour mix

1½ tsp xanthan gum (in addition to what's already in the Gluten-Free flour mix)

4 tsp baking powder

1 tsp salt

Feel free to add sweet or savory seasonings to taste.

Wet mix:

2 tsp apple cider vinegar or lemon juice

¼ cup olive oil

2 large eggs (see options for egg-free below)

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Preheat your oven to 375° F.
- 2) In measuring cup, measure and warm milk to just above body temperature—should be warm to the touch (not hot or cold). Stir in honey and add yeast last. Set aside and let proof for approximately 10 minutes.
- 3) Combine dry mix ingredients in small bowl.
- 4) Combine wet mix ingredients in bowl of stand mixer fitted with the paddle attachment. Mix just for a few seconds.
- 5) Add in the proofed yeast mix and mix again for just a few seconds.
- 6) Add the dry mix and beat on medium-high for approximately 3 minutes. Dough will be wet, but thick and sticky!
- 7) If necessary, oil and flour your 9x5 loaf pan or spray with non-stick coating. Using a spatula, scrape the bread mixture into your prepared loaf pan and set on top of your stove to proof while the oven is preheating. Be sure to smooth out the loaf with spatula or wet fingers before proofing as the loaf will not smooth out itself.

It is important not to over-proof the bread—just let it rise until the mixture is approximately double in size (20-30 minutes depending on your room temperature). Don't let it rise above your loaf pan... just until it crests the top. Gluten-free breads do not maintain their structure and will flow over the pan or collapse if left to over-rise or over-filled.

- 8) Bake for approximately 30-45 minutes. If the crust is darkening too quickly, you can cover it with foil (tent open ended) and return to baking until done. (Cook until you get an internal temperature of 210-220° F. on a digital thermometer).
 - 9) Remove loaf pan from oven and let cool for 3-5 minutes before turning out onto your cooling rack. Allow to cool completely before attempting to cut into slices. An electric knife works well.

- 1½ Tbsp fresh lemon juice (or lime juice)
- ½ tsp fine sea salt, or to taste

CUCUMBER AVOCADO ROLLS

INGREDIENTS:

1 avocado
¼ cup of basil leaves (a small bunch)
1 clove garlic
2 tsp lime juice
¼ tsp salt
1 Tbsp nutritional yeast
dash of pepper
1 cucumber
smoked or sweet paprika for garnish

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Toss all the ingredients (except the cucumber and paprika) into a food processor or blender. Or if you would like to do it by hand, finely mince the garlic and basil, and mash all the ingredients together with a fork until smooth and creamy.
- 2) Use a mandolin or potato peeler to cut long thin strips from the cucumber.
- 3) Take a cucumber strip and spread a thin coat of the avocado mixture along the length of the cucumber. A little goes a long way. Make sure to get some avocado all the way to the end, so it will stick the roll together.
- 4) Roll it up. No toothpicks needed. Do the same with the rest of your cucumber strips. Sprinkle with a little paprika and serve right away.

Cucumber is watery and softens quickly, so if you plan on bringing these to a party, prepare the avocado spread that morning, and store in an airtight container. Bring a whole cucumber and potato peeler and assemble at the party.

AUTUMN SQUASH SOUP

- 4 cups of peeled and cubed butternut squash, roasted

GLUTEN-FREE "SPAGHETTIOS"

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 carrots
- 1 stalk of celery
- 1½ cups of diced tomatoes
- 1½ cups of gluten-free "o" noodles—also called: Anelletti Pasta.
- salt to taste

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Cook the carrots, celery, tomatoes, and salt in a pot until it is all soft enough to blend (about 10-15 minutes).
- 2) Once the veggies are soft, blend in a high-powered blender until smooth. The sauce in real spaghetti is SUPER thin (and sweet); if you desire that, juice 2 more carrots, and add it back to the sauce to thin it out.
- 3) Add your cooked gluten-free pasta to the sauce.

This recipe makes a large amount of sauce. Leftover sauce can be frozen in an air tight container.

RAW KALE AND BRUSSELS SPROUTS SALAD WITH TAHINI-MAPLE DRESSING

INGREDIENTS:

1 bunch of curly green kale
12 Brussels sprouts (about 2 big handfuls)
3 Tbsp sliced almonds
dash of sea salt

Tahini-maple dressing:

¼ cup tahini
2 Tbsp white wine vinegar
2 tsp white miso
2 tsp maple syrup
pinch of red pepper flakes
¼ cup water

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Use a chef's knife to cut out the ribs of the kale leaves. Chop the kale into small, bite-sized pieces. Sprinkle a dash of sea salt over the kale and use your hands to massage the kale by lightly scrunching handfuls of kale in your hands. Release and repeat until the kale becomes darker in color and more fragrant. Transfer the kale to a medium serving bowl.
- 2) Chop off and discard the stem end of the brussels sprouts and any discolored outer leaves. Either use your knife to slice the sprouts as thin as possible, or shred the sprouts in your food processor using the slicing disk. Add the sprouts to the bowl and use your fingers break up any clumps.
- 3) In a small mixing bowl, whisk together the tahini, vinegar, miso, maple syrup and red pepper flakes. Whisk in the water until the mixture is smooth and creamy. Some brands of tahini are thicker than others, so if your dressing is too thick, add a bit more water and/or vinegar, to taste. Pour the dressing over the kale and sprouts and mix well.
- 4) In a small pan over medium heat, toast the almond slivers, stirring frequently, until fragrant and turning golden (this will take less than five minutes so watch carefully). Add the toasted almonds to the salad and toss. Serve immediately.

THE GREAT BIG VEGAN SALAD

I made all the ingredients over the weekend and kept in individual containers in the fridge. During the week, I added a handful here and there to create this big bowl of beauty. With enough fiber and protein to keep me satisfied for hours, I am declaring this the salad that even salad haters will love.

Below you will find the quick ingredient and how-to list for creating 4-5 giant salad bowls.

- 1) Preheat the oven to 400° F. and make the lentils, zucchini and mushrooms first. While those are cooking, prepare the rest of the ingredients.
- 2) For the Herbed Lentils: Cook 1 cup lentils, drain off any excess water. Toss lentils with 1 tsp olive oil and ¼ cup of whatever herbs you have lying around: chives, parsley, mint, basil.
- 3) For the Marinated Mushrooms: Clean and thinly slice 8 oz. button mushrooms. Whisk together 1 Tbsp soy sauce, 1 Tbsp sesame oil, 1 garlic clove grated and ¼ cup water or vegetable broth. Layer mushrooms in a baking dish and pour marinade on top. Bake for 15- 20 minutes in a 400 degree oven until roasted and slightly crispy.
- 4) For the Roasted Zucchini: Thinly slice 3 zucchini into half moons. Toss with 1 tsp oil and pinch of salt/pepper. Arrange in a single file on a baking sheet and roast for 20 minutes, flipping half way through.
- 5) For the Tempeh Bacon: Very thinly slice an 8 oz package of tempeh. Whisk together 2 Tbsp maple syrup, 1 Tbsp olive oil, ½ tsp cumin, ⅛ tsp cayenne pepper, 1 Tbsp soy sauce, pinch freshly ground black pepper. Place tempeh in a shallow bowl and cover with marinade. Let soak for at least 15 minutes. To fry, place tempeh slices in a hot skillet and let cook 1-3 minutes per side until brown and crispy. Cook longer for crispier tempeh.
- 6) For the Dairy-Free Ranch Dressing: ½ cup mayo or dairy-free mayo, ¼ cup soymilk, handful of fresh parsley, roughly chopped, 1 tsp dried dill, 1 tsp garlic powder, fresh ground pepper. Mix all ingredients together.

Other ingredients: 1 large ripe avocado, 1 pint cherry tomatoes, 2 heads romaine lettuce, roughly chopped.

To assemble: layer ½ head of romaine lettuce in a large bowl. Top with ⅓ cup lentils, ¼ avocado, chopped, ⅓ cup mushrooms, ⅓-½ cup cooked zucchini, 2 oz tempeh bacon, ⅓ cup cherry tomatoes. Drizzle with ranch dressing.

And there you have it. 5 servings of vegetables, 23g of fiber, 30g of protein.

DEB'S KALE SALAD WITH APPLE, CRANBERRIES AND PECANS

INGREDIENTS:

½ cup pecans
8 ounces kale (I used regular curly green kale, but Deb recommends Cavolo Nero or Lacinato, Dinosaur or Tuscan Kale)
4 to 5 medium radishes
½ cup dried cranberries (or dried cherries)
1 medium Granny Smith apple
3 Tbsp olive oil
1½ Tbsp apple cider vinegar (or white wine vinegar)
1 Tbsp smooth Dijon mustard
1½ tsp honey
Sea salt and freshly ground pepper, to taste

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1) Preheat the oven to 350° F. and spread the pecans on a baking tray. Toast them until lightly golden and fragrant, about 5 to 10 minutes, tossing them once or twice to make sure they bake evenly. Remove the tray from the oven and set them aside to cool.
- 2) Pull the kale leaves off from the tough stems and discard the stems. Use a chef's knife to chop the kale into small, bite-sized pieces. Transfer the kale to a big salad bowl. Sprinkle a small pinch of sea salt over the kale and massage the leaves with your hands by lightly scrunching big handfuls at a time, until the leaves are darker in color and fragrant.
- 3) Thinly slice the radishes (this is easier to do if you first chop off the root end so you can place the base of the radish flat against your cutting board). Add them to the bowl.
- 4) Coarsely chop the pecans and cranberries (or cherries) and add them to the bowl. Chop the apple into small, bite-sized pieces and add it to the bowl as well. Crumble the goat cheese over the top.
- 5) In a small bowl, whisk the dressing ingredients together and pour the dressing over the salad. Toss until the salad is evenly coated with dressing. Serve immediately, or for even better flavor, let the salad marinate in the dressing for 10 to 20 minutes beforehand.

- 3) For the dipping sauce: mix the lime juice, water, soy sauce, and remaining 2 teaspoons of oil in a bowl. Add the scallions and set aside.
- 4) Transfer the meatballs to a serving dish. Stir the sauce, then drizzle the meatballs with a little of the sauce. Serve the meatballs with the remaining sauce on the side. Suggested serving along with zucchini noodles.

HAWAIIAN BURGER AND CILANTRO LIME RICE

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 lb ground chuck or turkey
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp ginger powder
- 2 Tbsp liquid aminos
- 1 Tbsp coconut palm sugar
- 1 tsp sesame oil
- fresh pineapple sliced into ½" rings
- red onion, sliced into rings
- 4-8 cabbage leaves

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Place the ground meat of your choice in a bowl and add in the garlic, ginger, aminos, coconut sugar and sesame oil. Mix well, then roll into four even balls. Place each ball between two sheets of parchment and press into a thin burger. Go thinner than you think you want, because they always puff up and shrink.
- 2) Fire up the grill, and grill each burger 4-5 minutes per side or to an internal temperature of 155°. Grill the pineapple and onions 2-3 minutes per side. Stack your cooked burger into the cup of a cabbage leaf, then layer the pineapple and onions on top. If your leaves are big, you'll only need one to fold over the top. If your leaves are smaller you can add a second leaf, cup side down, on top. I added a few homemade refrigerator pickled carrots and cucumbers to mine.

Cilantro Lime Rice:

- 3 cups jasmine rice
- 3 cups water
- 2 Tbsp cilantro, finely chopped
- 1 Tbsp coconut oil
- 1 lime, juiced

- 1) Add the rice and water to your Instant Pot*, seal the lid then use the manual setting for 4 minutes. Do a 10 minute natural pressure release, then release the rest of the steam and open the pot.
- 2) Stir in the rest of the ingredients and serve immediately. If you want a more dominant lime taste, zest your lime before you juice it and add the zest in.

Note: If you don't have an Instant Pot, cook your rice however you normally cook it.

MUSHROOM RISOTTO WITH CARAMELIZED ONIONS

SERVES 4 TO 6

INGREDIENTS:

- ½ ounce dried shiitake or porcini mushrooms, finely chopped
- 2 cups boiling water
- ⅓ cup olive oil, divided
- 4 yellow onions (about 2 pounds)
- 4 cloves garlic, finely minced
- ½ pound cremini mushrooms, cleaned and sliced
- 1 large sprig fresh rosemary
- 1 cup Arborio or short-grain white rice
- ½ cup dry white wine, such as Sauvignon Blanc (make sure it's vegan!)
- 2 Tbsp balsamic vinegar
- 2 cups vegetable broth (see how to make your own)
- 1 tsp salt
- ½ tsp freshly ground black pepper, plus more to garnish

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Heat the oven to 300°F. Rinse the dried mushrooms lightly, to remove any dust or grit. Place the mushrooms in a ceramic bowl and pour the boiling water over them. Set them aside to steep while you cook the onions.
- 2) Chop one of the onions into a fine dice. Heat 2 tablespoons of the olive oil in a 3-quart (or larger) ovenproof pot or Dutch oven over medium heat. Add the onion and garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, for about 8 minutes, or until soft and golden. Push the onions to the side of the pot, and turn the heat up to medium-high. Add all the sliced cremini mushrooms and let them cook for 5 minutes without stirring. Flip the mushrooms and cook for another five minutes, or until they are quite brown and a crust is developing on the bottom of the pan.
- 3) Drain the dried mushrooms, reserving the liquid. Add the mushrooms and rosemary sprig to the pan and sauté briefly, mixing with the onion and the rest of the mushrooms. Add the rice and cook, stirring once or twice, for about 4 minutes, or until the rice begins to turn transparent.
- 4) Turn the heat to high and add the white wine, vinegar, broth, and reserved mushroom steeping liquid. Stir and scrape the bottom of the pan as you add the liquid to deglaze any yummy mushroomy bits sticking to the pan. Stir in the salt and pepper. Bring to a boil. Cover the pan with a tight-fitting lid and put it in the oven to bake for 35 minutes.
- 5) While the rice is baking, make the caramelized onions. Heat the remaining olive oil in a cast iron skillet. Cut the remaining three onions in half, and then slice them into thin half moons. Add them to the oil and sprinkle liberally with salt. Cook on low heat, stirring occasionally, until the onions turn a dark mahogany brown. Let them go as long as you can; I usually cook mine for at least 30 minutes.

- 6) When the risotto has finished baking, let it stand uncovered for 5 minutes before serving. Dish it up and top each bowl with a spoonful of caramelized onions, a little extra pepper, and, if desired, a scoop of sour cream, whipped mascarpone, or whipped Tofutti Better Than Cream Cheese.

BRAISED COCONUT SPINACH AND CHICKPEAS WITH LEMON

SERVES 4 AS A MAIN DISH OR 6 AS A SIDE

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 tsp oil or ghee
- 1 small yellow onion
- 4 large cloves garlic, peeled and minced
- 1 tablespoon grated ginger, from a 3-inch piece
- ½ cup sun-dried tomatoes, chopped
- 1 large lemon, zested and juiced (about 2 tablespoons juice)
- 1 dried hot red pepper or dash of red pepper flakes (optional)
- 1 (15-ounce) can chickpeas, drained and rinsed
- 1 pound baby spinach
- 1 (14-ounce) can coconut milk
- 1 tsp salt, or to taste
- 1 tsp ground ginger
- Whole roasted sweet potatoes
- Cilantro leaves, to garnish
- Toasted unsweetened coconut, to garnish

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Heat the oil or ghee in a large, deep Dutch oven or heavy pot over medium-high heat. Add the onion and cook for about 5 minutes, or until the onion is beginning to brown. Add the garlic, ginger, sun-dried tomatoes, lemon zest, and red pepper, if using. Cook for 3 minutes, stirring frequently.
- 2) Add the chickpeas and cook over high heat for a few minutes, or until the chickpeas are beginning to turn golden and they are coated with the onion and garlic mixture.
- 3) Toss in the spinach, one handful at a time. This will take about 5 minutes; stir in a handful or two and wait for it to wilt down and make room in the pot before adding the next handful. When all the spinach has been added, pour in the coconut milk, salt, ground ginger, and lemon juice. Bring to a simmer, then turn down the heat and cook for 10 minutes, or until the chickpeas are warmed through. Taste and add more salt and lemon juice, if necessary.
- 4) Serve hot over roasted sweet potatoes, with cilantro leaves and toasted unsweetened coconut to garnish.

Recipe Note: This is thick enough to eat on its own with a fork, but it's also saucy enough to serve over pasta, rice, quinoa, or another grain.

Freezing instructions: Freeze in individual portions for up to 3 months. Allow it to thaw overnight in the fridge and then reheat gently over low heat on the stove.

SOBA NOODLE SALAD WITH BOK CHOY

SERVES 2-4

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 carrot, peeled and cut into thin matchsticks (a mandoline works great for this!)
- 2 bunches bok choy, sliced into ribbons
- ½ pound dried soba noodles
- 6 scallions, thinly sliced
- ½ cucumber, peeled and cut into matchsticks
- 1 Tbsp sesame oil
- 2 Tbsp rice vinegar
- 1½ Tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tsp hot sauce (optional)
- 2-4 eggs (optional)

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Fill a medium-sized sauce pan with water and bring it to a boil. Drop the carrots and one table-spoon of salt into the boiling water. Blanch the carrots for 30-60 seconds (depending on how cooked you like them) and then lift them out with a slotted spoon or small strainer. Run the carrots under cold water to stop the cooking and then empty them into a medium-sized bowl.
- 2) Let the water come back to a boil and add the bok choy. Blanch for 30 seconds and then remove using a slotted spoon or small strainer. Run them under cool water and then add them to the carrots.
- 3) Let the water come to a boil again and cook the soba noodles according to package instructions (usually 5-8 minutes, until al dente). Strain the noodles, cool them down, and add them to the bowl with the carrots and bok choy. Add the scallions and cucumbers to the bowl and toss everything gently together.
- 4) Whisk together the sesame oil, rice vinegar, soy sauce, and hot sauce (if using). Pour this over the noodles and vegetables, and then toss until everything is evenly coated.
- 5) If cooking eggs, empty all but 4 inches of the water and let it come back to a gentle simmer. Crack the eggs into individual measuring cups. Add a splash of white vinegar to the water and slip the cracked eggs in one at a time. Poach for 4 minutes for soft boiled eggs or 5 minutes for a firmer yolk. Strain and set aside until serving. (Here's a full video on how to do this)
- 6) Divide salad into individual bowls and add a poached egg to each bowl. Salad can be served warm or cold, and it can keep refrigerated for about 3 days.

CURRIED COCONUT CARROT SOUP

SERVES 6 TO 8

INGREDIENTS:

2 Tbsp coconut oil
1 onion, peeled and roughly chopped
6 cups carrots, unpeeled and roughly chopped (this required 8 medium-sized carrots for me)
3½ cups vegetable stock (I like the flavor of 'No Chicken' stock by Imagine Foods)
One 15-ounce can full-fat coconut milk
1½ Tbsp freshly chopped ginger root
1 Tbsp curry powder
½ tsp chili flakes
Salt and pepper to taste

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Heat the coconut oil in a large soup pot and add the onions. Sweat the onions on medium heat for about 7 minutes. Add the carrots and cook for another 5 minutes. Pour in the stock and coconut milk. Add the ginger, curry powder and chili flakes. Put a lid on the pot and cook until the carrots are softened, about 10 or 15 minutes.
- 2) When carrots are soft, carefully blend the soup in batches in a blender (use a towel to hold the lid down firmly) or use an immersion hand blender and puree until smooth. Season with salt and pepper and garnish with fresh herbs, and more chili flakes, if desired.

ONE POT PEANUT SAUCE NOODLES

On days when you just want some great tasting food within minutes of thinking about it, you make this Super Easy One Pot Peanut butter or Almond Butter Sauce Noodles and Veggies! Just chop things up, layer, cook and done.

I mean literally 12 minutes.

- 1) Add water to your saucepan, add noodles, veggies, nut butter (I usually use almond butter), and flavors.
- 2) Bring to a boil, simmer until the noodles are done. Garnish and serve!

The noodles are somewhat soupy, which is how I love the dish as there is so much flavor in the sauce. The noodles absorb the sauce as they cool, so by the next day, there won't be any. Adjust the liquid and noodle quantities to preference. This recipe is oil-free if your nut butter has no oil.

FALAFEL

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 pound (about 2 cups) dry chickpeas/garbanzo beans — you must start with dry, do NOT substitute canned, they will not work!
- 1 small onion, roughly chopped
- ¼ cup chopped fresh parsley
- 3-5 cloves garlic (I prefer roasted)
- 1½ Tbsp flour
- 1¾ tsp salt
- 2 tsp cumin
- 1 tsp ground coriander
- ¼ tsp black pepper
- ¼ tsp cayenne pepper
- Pinch of ground cardamom
- Vegetable oil for frying (grape seed, canola, and peanut oil work well)

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Drain and rinse the garbanzo beans well. Pour them into your food processor along with the chopped onion, garlic cloves, parsley, flour, salt, cumin, ground coriander, black pepper, cayenne pepper, and cardamom.
- 2) Pulse all ingredients together until a rough, coarse meal forms. Scrape the sides of the processor periodically and push the mixture down the sides. Process till the mixture is somewhere between the texture of couscous and a paste. You want the mixture to hold together, and a more paste-like consistency will help with that... but don't over process, you don't want it turning into hummus!
- 3) Once the mixture reaches the desired consistency, pour it out into a bowl and use a fork to stir; this will make the texture more even throughout. Remove any large chickpea chunks that the processor missed.
- 4) Cover the bowl with plastic wrap and refrigerate for 1-2 hours.
- 5) Fill a skillet with vegetable oil to a depth of 1½ inches. I prefer to use cooking oil with a high smoke point, like grape seed. Heat the oil slowly over medium heat. Meanwhile, form falafel mixture into round balls or slider-shaped patties using wet hands or a falafel scoop. I usually use about 2 tbsp of mixture per falafel. You can make them smaller or larger depending on your personal preference. The balls will stick together loosely at first, but will bind nicely once they begin to fry.

Note: if the balls won't hold together, place the mixture back in the processor again and continue processing to make it more paste-like. Keep in mind that the balls will be delicate at first; if you can get them into the hot oil, they will bind together and stick. If they still won't hold together, you can try adding 2-3 Tbsp of flour to the mixture. If they still won't hold, add 1-2 eggs to the mix. This should fix any issues you are having.

Before frying my first batch of falafel, I like to fry a test one in the center of the pan. If the oil is at the right temperature, it will take 2-3 minutes per side to brown (5-6 minutes total). If it browns faster than that, your oil is too hot and your falafels will not be fully cooked in the center. Cool the oil down slightly and try again. When the oil is at the right temperature, fry the falafels in batches of 5-6 at a time till golden brown on both sides.

6) Once the falafels are fried, remove them from the oil using a slotted spoon.

Let them drain on paper towels. Serve the falafels fresh and hot; they go best with a plate of hummus and topped with creamy tahini sauce. You can also stuff them into a pita.

Troubleshooting: If your falafel is too hard/too crunchy on the outside, there are two possible reasons: 1) you didn't process the mixture enough—return the chickpea mixture to the processor to make it more paste-like. 2) the chickpeas you used were old. Try buying a fresher batch of dried chickpeas next time.

LENTIL SLOPPY JOES

INGREDIENTS

Lentils:

2 cups (480 ml) water (I used 1 cup water, 1 cup vegetable broth)

1 cup (192 g) green lentils, well rinsed

Sloppy Joes:

2 Tbsp (30 ml) olive or grape seed oil

½ white or yellow onion (55 g), minced (plus more for serving)

2 cloves garlic, minced (1 Tbsp or 6 g)

½ green bell pepper, diced (60 g)

Sea salt and black pepper to taste

1 15-ounce (425 g) can tomato sauce*

1-2 Tbsp (12-24 g) coconut sugar, plus more to taste

1-2 Tbsp (15-30 ml) vegan-friendly worcestershire sauce* (like this brand)

1-2 tsp chili powder, plus more to taste

1 tsp ground cumin, plus more to taste

optional: pinch smoked or regular paprika

For serving (optional):

Gluten free or whole wheat hamburger buns*

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) To a small saucepan, add liquid (I used 1 cup water, 1 cup vegetable broth for added flavor) and rinsed lentils and heat over medium-high heat.
- 2) Bring to a low boil, then reduce heat to a simmer and cook uncovered for about 18 minutes, or until tender. The water should have a constant simmer (not boil). Drain off any excess liquid and set aside.
- 3) In the meantime, heat a large skillet over medium heat. Add oil, onion, garlic, and bell pepper. Season with a pinch each salt and pepper. Sauté for 4-5 minutes, stirring frequently, or until the peppers and onions are tender and slightly browned.
- 4) Add tomato sauce, coconut sugar, vegan worcestershire sauce, chili powder, cumin, and paprika (optional). Stir to combine.
- 5) Once the lentils are cooked, add them to the skillet as well, and stir to combine. Continue cooking the mixture over medium-low heat until completely warmed through and thick, stirring occasionally, about 5-10 minutes.
- 6) Taste and adjust flavor as needed, adding more chili powder and/or cumin for smokiness, salt for saltiness, coconut sugar for sweetness, or worcestershire for depth of flavor.
- 7) Serve the mixture on toasted buns with sliced onion. Best when fresh, though leftover sloppy joe mixture will keep in the refrigerator up to 3 days. Reheat in the microwave, or on the stovetop, adding water if the mixture has dried out.

SHAKSHUKA

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 Tbsp olive oil
- ½ medium brown or white onion, peeled and diced
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 medium green or red bell pepper, chopped
- 4 cups ripe diced tomatoes, or 2 cans (14 oz. each) diced tomatoes
- 2 Tbsp tomato paste
- 1 tsp chili powder (mild)
- 1 tsp cumin
- 1 tsp paprika
- Pinch of cayenne pepper (or more to taste—spicy!)
- Pinch of sugar (optional, to taste)
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 5-6 eggs
- ½ Tbsp fresh chopped parsley (optional, for garnish)

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Heat a deep, large skillet or sauté pan on medium. Slowly warm olive oil in the pan. Add chopped onion, sauté for a few minutes until the onion begins to soften. Add garlic and continue to sauté till mixture is fragrant.
- 2) Add the bell pepper, sauté for 5-7 minutes over medium until softened.
- 3) Add tomatoes and tomato paste to pan, stir till blended. Add spices and sugar, stir well, and allow mixture to simmer over medium heat for 5-7 minutes till it starts to reduce. At this point, you can taste the mixture and spice it according to your preferences. Add salt and pepper to taste, more sugar for a sweeter sauce, or more cayenne pepper for a spicier shakshuka (be careful with the cayenne... it is extremely spicy!).
- 4) Crack the eggs, one at a time, directly over the tomato mixture, making sure to space them evenly over the sauce. I usually place 4-5 eggs around the outer edge and 1 in the center. The eggs will cook "over easy" style on top of the tomato sauce.
- 5) Cover the pan. Allow mixture to simmer for 10-15 minutes, or until the eggs are cooked and the sauce has slightly reduced. Keep an eye on the skillet to make sure that the sauce doesn't reduce too much, which can lead to burning.

Note: Some people prefer their shakshuka eggs more runny. If this is your preference, let the sauce reduce for a few minutes before cracking the eggs on top—then, cover the pan and cook the eggs to taste.

- 6) Garnish with the chopped parsley, if desired.

Shakshuka can be eaten for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. For breakfast, serve with warm Gluten-free bread that can be dipped into the sauce. For dinner, serve with a green side salad for a light, easy meal.

CHOCOLATE AND RASPBERRY CHIA PUDDING

INGREDIENTS:

- 6 Tbsp chia seeds
- 2 cups coconut milk beverage or any non-dairy milk
- 6 large squares dark chocolate (yield about 2 Tbsp melted + 4 Tbsp grated chocolate to decorate)
- ½ cup fresh or frozen raspberries + a few raspberries to decorate

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) In a small pot, melt about 4 chocolate squares over low heat (should yield about 2 tablespoons melted chocolate). Add 1 cup coconut milk beverage or your favorite non-dairy milk and stir until combined, making sure the mixture doesn't become too hot. Let it cool to the room temperature.
- 2) In the meantime, add the raspberries and 1 cup of coconut milk beverage or your favorite non-dairy milk to a blender and puree until smooth. Pour the mixture into a jar or glass container and add 3 tablespoons of chia seeds. Mix well until all chia seeds are covered with liquid. Cover with a tight lid and place in the refrigerator.
- 3) Once the chocolate mixture is cool, pour it into a jar or glass container and add 3 tablespoons of the chia seeds. Mix well until all the chia seeds are covered with the liquid. Cover with a tight lid and place in the refrigerator. Keep the chia seeds in the fridge overnight or for at least 8 hours.
- 4) Once ready to prepare the pudding, check the consistency of the chocolate chia. If you find it too thick add 2 or 3 tablespoons of the milk of your choice and mix well.
- 5) Divide the chocolate chia in half and place each half into 2 small bowls or dessert glasses. Divide the raspberry chia in half and place on top of the chocolate chia.
- 6) Grate the remaining 2 squares of dark chocolate using a grater or shave it with a knife. To decorate the chia pudding, add about 2 tablespoons of shaved chocolate and a few raspberries to each.

LEMON BARS

INGREDIENTS:

For the crust:

¼ cup honey

½ cup coconut oil at room temperature (it should be the consistency of soft butter)

pinch of salt

1 cup coconut flour, sifted

For the lemon topping:

3 eggs

½ cup honey

2 tsp lemon zest (about 1 large lemon)

2 tsp coconut flour, sifted

½ cup fresh lemon juice* (about 3 large lemons)

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Preheat oven to 350° F. and generously rub an 8x8 inch pan with coconut oil. Set aside.
- 2) In a large bowl, using an electric hand mixer, beat together the honey, coconut oil and pinch of salt until creamy and well combined. Stir in the coconut flour until a dough forms.
- 3) Press the dough evenly into the prepared pan and bake until just lightly golden brown, about 8 minutes. Cool for 30 minutes.
- 4) Lower the temperature of your oven to 325° and lower the oven rack to the second from the bottom position.
- 5) Once the crust has cooled, gently whisk together the eggs, honey and lemon zest in a large bowl. Do NOT use an electric mixer here or you will over-beat the eggs and the topping will crack once baked. Use a hand whisk.
- 6) In a separate medium bowl, whisk the coconut flour into the lemon juice, 1 teaspoon at a time, until well mixed. Make sure you continually whisk as you add the flour so that it doesn't clump up.
- 7) Pour the lemon juice mixture into the egg mixture, whisking while you pour, until evenly combined.
- 8) Pour the topping over top of the cooled crust and bake until it is just set, and the very center is just slightly jiggly, about 21-23 minutes. Let cool completely at room temperature. Then, cover and refrigerate for at least 6 hours, best over-night. You need to let the crust completely cool, or it will be soft.
- 8) Cut the bars into squares and DEVOUR.

NOTES:

- * Do NOT use lemon juice from a bottle, it tastes completely different than fresh. I tried it. Not good.
-  Make sure you DON'T OVER-BAKE it. I did once, and it completely makes the lemon layer bake funny, and makes it almost disappear. You want it to be golden brown on the edges and VERY light brown on the inside.

- 2 springs fresh Dill (washed, stems removed)
- ½ cucumber (washed, skin on, roughly chopped)
- ½ teaspoon Salt
- 2 Tbsp lemon juice

- 2) Scoop hummus into a bowl and drizzle with olive oil. Serve with veggies, gluten-free crackers, or bread.

NOTES:

- Cucumber hummus will keep in fridge for up to 5 days, covered.
- If hummus is too watery, add more chickpeas. If hummus is too thick, add more cucumber or a bit of water.
- This recipe is very kid-friendly. That being said, if it tastes too bland for you, add more garlic, salt, and pepper. This hummus also tastes great topped with cayenne pepper.

SUPERFOOD GRANOLA

INGREDIENTS:

- 1½ cups gluten-free rolled oats
- 1 cup pecans, roughly chopped
- ¼ cup goji berries
- ¼ cup cacao nibs
- ¼ cup chia seeds
- ¼ cup hemp seeds
- 2 tsp cinnamon
- 1 tsp maca powder
- ¼ cup tahini
- 4 Medjool dates, pitted and soaked in water for an hour, drained
- ¼ cup pure maple syrup
- ¼ cup coconut oil, melted

DIRECTIONS:

- 1) Preheat the oven to 250 degrees and line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
- 2) In a large bowl, stir together the oats, pecans, goji berries, cacao nibs, chia seeds, hemp seeds, cinnamon and maca powder.
- 3) In a high-speed or regular blender, process the tahini, dates, maple syrup and coconut oil until smooth (a few bits of date is fine). Pour this mixture in with the oat mixture and stir thoroughly, making sure the seeds and powders are really mixed in.
- 4) Spread the granola onto the prepared baking sheet and bake for about 1 hour, stirring every 20 minutes or so. The granola will still be soft when you first take it out of the oven, but it crisps up as it cools. Let it cool completely before putting it in an air-tight container.

NOTES:

A trick for keeping the parchment paper from sliding around when stirring the granola is to spritz the pan in a few places with cooking oil. Then place the parchment down and squiggle it a little. Adheres like a dream!

ALL-PURPOSE GLUTEN-FREE FLOUR MIX

- 1 bag (24 oz or 4¼ cups) white rice flour
- 1 bag (24 oz or 4¼ cups) sweet rice flour
- 1 bag (20 oz or 4½ cups) tapioca flour (aka tapioca starch)
- 2½ Tbsp (0.8 oz) xanthan gum

DIRECTIONS:

Pour all of the ingredients into an extra-large bowl and mix until well incorporated—this will take about 3-5 minutes with a whisk. Do not skimp on the mixing. Otherwise, the ingredients will not be blended appropriately and will not achieve the same results. Store flour in an airtight container.
